Agency Description and Programs

Senate Bill 2426 of the 1979 Regular Legislative Session set forth requirements relating to the disclosure of economic interests by certain public officials and candidates. The Mississippi Ethics Commission oversees the ethical conduct of public officials and public employees within all state and local government. The Commission is composed of eight-members who oversee the revisions of penalties and provides additional remedies, including removal from office of public officials and employees who are convicted of state or federal offenses.

1. Oversight of Public Officials

This program is responsible for promoting confidence in state and local government while assisting public officials in determining conflicts of interest.
